Question 10 Answer

The Second Amendment is the cornerstone of American liberty and the ultimate safeguard of all our other rights. It guarantees the individual, God-given right of law-abiding citizens to keep and bear arms for self-defense, family protection, hunting, sport, and as a check against government tyranny. As a descendant of Revolutionary War patriots who fought to secure our freedom, and as a law-abiding gun owner myself, I believe this right is not a privilege the government can regulate away - it is an inalienable right that Congress has a constitutional duty to defend without compromise. I will fight to repeal unconstitutional federal restrictions and restore the full scope of the Second Amendment so every responsible American can exercise their right to keep and bear arms in peace.
