Question 10 Answer

To me, the Second Amendment is a fundamental constitutional right that protects the ability of law-abiding Americans to defend themselves, their families, and their freedoms. As a Navy veteran and former law enforcement officer, I understand both the importance of responsible firearm ownership and the importance of public safety. I support enforcing existing laws against violent criminals while protecting the constitutional rights of responsible citizens. Rights guaranteed by the Constitution should not be eroded for those who obey the law.
