Question 10 Answer

To me, the Second Amendment is a fundamental, God-given right that guarantees every law-abiding American the individual liberty to defend themselves, their families, and their property. It is not about hunting or sport; it is a vital constitutional check against tyranny and the cornerstone of personal security. As an Air Force veteran, I took an oath to support and defend the Constitution, and in Congress, I will fiercely oppose any red-flag laws, gun bans, or bureaucratic overreach that seeks to infringe upon the constitutional right of citizens to keep and bear arms.
