Question 6 Answer

The 2nd Amendment is a foundational piece to keep the republic free. “Thou shalt not be infringed” is not a suggestion nor up for debate. I have a long history of supporting our second amendment rights including but not limited being one of only a handful of legislators to vote against the the largest piece of gun control legislation in Floridas history (Parkland bill) and have both carried and passed into law pro-second amendment pieces of legislation. Others can promise to stand up for the 2nd Amendment, I actually have.
